CSC themes of the School of Business and Economics of the Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam:

Accounting
- a) auditing and compliance
- b) performance management

Economics and development economics
- c) development, targeting and big data
- d) global and local food security: the poverty-nutrition-environment nexus
- e) the formation of human capital and labor market outcomes
- f) the economics of health, disability and work

Econometrics and Operations Research
- g) operations research and management
- h) probability and stochastic processes
- i) Financial Econometrics
- j) Forecasting Economic Time Series
- k) Economic and Social Networks
- l) Decision Theory in Economics and Business

Finance
- m) financial econometrics (time varying parameter models)
- n) FinTech: the emerging new market microstructure
- o) empirical research into decision making with real-life (field) data and empirical behavioral finance
- p) Equity risk pricing (implied cost of equity modeling)

Knowledge Information Networks
- q) organizing in the sharing economy
- r) new ways of working and organizing with digital technologies

Logistics
- s) supply chain coordination and incentive alignment in retail logistics
- t) supply chain optimization and vehicle routing

Management and Organization
- u) human Resources Management and Organizational Behavior (job crafting, careers and career competencies, work engagement, HRM systems, talent management, leadership, employability, meaningful work, creativity, innovative behavior)
- v) entrepreneurship (new venture creation, corporate entrepreneurship, social entrepreneurship, institutional entrepreneurship, entrepreneurial behavior, innovation, opportunity recognition, market creation)
- w) strategy (alliances, mergers, organizational renewal, coopetition, internationalization, business model innovation, emerging markets, corporate social responsibility (CSR), sustainability, strategic behavior and decision-making)
- x) management consulting (professions and professional service firms, organizational practice adoption and implementation, organizational errors and dealing with errors in/by consultancies, decision rationality and consultants’ decision support, purchasing of consulting services, consultant image and rhetoric, consultant business models and innovation, consultant ethics and CSR consulting)

Marketing
  y) consumer behavior
  z) marketing strategy

Spatial Economics
  aa) urban economics
  bb) transport economics
  cc) environmental economics
  dd) regional economics