| !Image | SLRP gave me the opportunity to reflect about my own leadership and about leadership in our organisation. It gave me a new boost of energy, it made me take on another perspective and it made me question the current way of working (my own and that of the organisation). Also the concept of Humble Inquiry was very enlightening.
Leen Wouters, Manager Training & Development, Lidl, Belgium |
| !Image | Insights can build a business. People can accelerate the building of a business. Servant Leadership provides insights in people and a sustainable basis for acceleration of both the people as well as the business. Business in a globalizing world is perceived differently between cultures. Servant Leadership provides insights to deal with these differences and come to better and more sustainable solutions for both the people as well as the business!
Bastiaan J.J. de Koning, Global Business Director Innovation, DSM Dyneema |
| !Image | The SLRP gave me a much broader insight and context to a very appealing leadership style that for sure will bring high added value for any organization. Via cross company and experiential learning the SLRP is a truly inspiring experience for the leaders of the future.
